STATINTL

Dear Jerry,

STATINTL

Thank you for your letter of 29 June written at 39,000 feet over Yukon Territory. I was glad to hear from you. You might be interested in knowing that I get buttonholed frequently around here being asked what [REDACTED] is doing. In fact, the day after your letter arrived, I chanced to meet [REDACTED] who popped the question, and I was able to respond with due authority.

It appears that your work is going well and has its rewarding features. Like all jobs, no doubt, there are other features also. Even the Presidency is not without its disadvantages. It is good to learn, however, that your travels have been rewarding.

Your letter mentioned you would be back in the states mid-July or thereabouts. You might have some notion for coming to Washington on one of these occasions. If so, I hope you would let me know so we could get together. Meanwhile, best regards to the family and to yourself.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
JOHN
